BRITISH ADMIRALTY TV LACKS FORCE SAYS WINSTON CHURCHILL GERMANS CONTINUE TO GAIN GROUND IN VERDUN DRIVE

FORMER FIRST LORD OF ENGLAND'S NAVY RETURNS FROM TRENCHES TO SOUND NOTE OF WARNING THAT POLICY IS DANGEROUS.

VEIL OVER GERMAN PROGRAM ASSAULTS ALONG ENTIRE LINE

New and Novel Dangers Must Be Met by Naval Expedients Is Declared. Destroying Zeppelins by Air Raids Over Sheds in Germany Is Now Urged.

By the Associated Press.

London, March 7, 7:50 p. m.—Winston Churchill, former first lord of the admiralty, now a colonel just returned from the trenches, sprang into the parliamentary arena today in a daring speech answering the first lord of the admiralty, Balfour, who had just presented the naval estimates and declaring that the admiralty's lack of force and must be revitalized before it was too late by bringing back Lord Fisher, the former first sea lord, to head the admiralty administration.

Great interest attached to Colonel Churchill's reappearance after a period of silence while serving with the army and while the naval policy he had inaugurated at the opening of the war was undergoing considerable change. Mr. Balfour had just concluded an optimistic statement of the naval outlook which strongly appealed to the patriotic sentiments of the house of commons, so that Colonel Churchill's criticisms were at first closed almost as if he were speaking in a vacuum.

He referred to his remarks as "a jarring note and warning" which he said had to be given. Since he returned from the front he had received information which was not entirely satisfying concerning the progress of naval construction. Details must be given that if every capital ship provided for in the naval program had been completed, the navy would be ready with an ample margin of safety. It was within the power of the admiralty to complete this program, but he expressed doubt whether this had been done. Meanwhile there was an impenetrable veil over the German program.

"That is a grave fact," said Colonel Churchill, "for while we know nothing yet, we may be sure something is going on there."

The speaker said the admiralty must prepare to meet new and novel dangers by novel expedients. It was the unexpected which must be guarded against.

"The submarine menace," he said, "may present new and grave dangers for which the admiralty must be prepared with maximum efficiency. The great remedy against Zeppelins is to destroy them in their sheds, and I cannot understand why the policy of Lord Fisher and myself is not carried out to raid these sheds at Düsseldorf and Wilhelmshaven."

Colonel Churchill concluded with an earnest appeal against a "negative strategic policy," declaring that the naval board over which he presided would never have been content with a naval policy of "pure passivity."

Mr. Balfour had expanded enormously since the outbreak of the war, as evidenced by the fact that its personnel had more than doubled within that period and that its tonnage, including auxiliary cruisers and ships under the white ensign, had increased by 1,000,000.

Mr. Balfour gave warm praise to Colonel Churchill in connection with the establishment of the air service. The growth of this branch, he asserted, was even more remarkable than the increase in ships, the aerial service having expanded ten-fold during the war.

Mr. Balfour emphasized the magnitude of the task undertaken by Great Britain in transporting and feeding the forces in the Mediterranean. He said about 4,000,000 combatants in all, one million horses, 2,500,000 tons of stores and twenty-seven million gallons of oil had been transported by the British naval service since the war began.

"I fail to understand," he said, "how anybody could be so confident in August, September and October, 1914, could be anxious in 1916. He must be somewhat poor spirited who is unable to face the future with serenity."

Bradberry Trials Postponed.

By the Associated Press.

Pine Bluff, Ark., March 7.—The trials of T. S. Bradberry, charged with the murder of P. G. Jenkins, wealthy planter of Sherill, this county, and of Mrs. Johnnie Jenkins, the widow, charged with complicity in the killing, today were postponed until April 19 at the request of attorneys for the defense.

High Cost of Living Felt in All Countries of Europe

By the Associated Press.

Washington, March 7.—Enormous increases in food prices in European capitals, particularly those of the Teutonic allies, are shown in a comparative statement compiled today by the department of labor's bureau of labor statistics. All food is cheaper in the allied countries than in Germany and Austria but there have been sharp rises in prices also in England and France.

Vienna has suffered most of all. Meat which sold a year ago at 20 cents a pound is selling now for 45 cents. Bacon is selling at 85 cents, twice as much as a year ago. In Berlin beef rose from 22 to 37 cents. Lard has doubled in price, eggs at 80 cents a dozen are twice as high as a year ago.

Prices in Great Britain are given as 44 per cent more than a year ago. The rise in France has been about 25 per cent. In Italy prices have gone up very slowly for the last twelve months. Meats alone showed an appreciable increase.

Prices in The Netherlands, the only neutral European country shown, have risen steadily within the year, but not so rapidly as in the belligerent countries.

Food on the whole costs 3 per cent more in the United States than a year ago the bureau estimates.

REVERSES ADMITTED BY FRENCH WHO CLAIM TO HAVE INFLICTED HEAVY LOSSES ON ATTACKING FORCES AND TO STILL BE HOLDING HEIGHTS.

ASSAULTS ALONG ENTIRE LINE

Rome Reports That Twenty Teutonic Dreadnaughts Have Come Into North Sea From Base at Kiel, Seeming to Presage Imminence of Great Naval Battle in Near Future.

The Associated Press summarizes the war as follows:

Driving hard against the French line northwest and southeast of Verdun, the Germans have been enabled to make additional gains toward Verdun, but with extremely heavy casualties, according to Paris. Hill 255 to the southeast and a portion of Corbeaux wood, directly south of Forges, have been occupied by the Germans through strong infantry attacks that were preceded by extremely heavy bombardments. The town of Frennes in the Voivre also has been captured.

The German attack was over the entire front west of the Meuse, extending from Bethincourt to the river, but except in the Corbeaux wood and at Hill 255 the French held back the attackers at all points. Thus the French still occupy the important strategic position on the heights of the Cote de L'Or, for the possession of which numerous sanguinary engagements have been fought.

The occupation of a portion of the Corbeaux wood would indicate that the Germans have advanced over three miles since they took the town of Forges.

The Germans succeeded in penetrating a French redoubt in the region of Douaumont, but were thrown out immediately in a counter attack. The capture by the Germans of Champagne, the pushing of the German line further forward in the Argonne forest and the expulsion of small British detachments from captured German positions northeast of Verdun are the latest German official reports. The British are extending the famous Hohenzollern redoubt position against German hostilities.

Despite the report from Rome that twenty German dreadnaughts have come into the North Sea from their base at Kiel and other reports which seemed to presage the imminence of a naval battle, nothing definite has come through to show that German warships are out maneuvering or seeking battle.

Probing Fire in Against Wilson El Paso Jail Not a Candidate

By the Associated Press.

El Paso, Tex., March 7.—Statements of witnesses to the fire and explosion yesterday in the El Paso county jail which caused the death of eighteen prisoners and seriously injured twenty-two others, were taken today by county officials for presentation to a coroner's jury. The disaster occurred while prisoners were being bathed in a volatile disinfecting fluid under the supervision of health authorities. Statements of guards and other persons present during the bathing declared that the explosion followed the striking of a match by H. M. Cross, a prisoner, in defiance of instructions issued when the bathing was started.

Cross died of burns last night. The attention of the coroner also was directed to criticisms against the city health authorities who directed the bathing of the prisoners, for placing the bathing solution of volatile liquid in a closed cell house, and for their alleged failure to search all prisoners and relieve them of matches before the bathing began.

Street car traffic between El Paso and Juarez, which was suspended last night, was resumed today, with armed Mexican soldiers guarding each car while on the Mexican side.

The suspension followed the shooting of Charles Phelps, motorman, who was attacked by an unidentified Mexican after the cars were moved in Juarez. Two Mexicans had been thrown into jail here and deliberately burned to death. It was learned today that this report was given currency by two of the victims of the explosion, who dashed naked through the sheet of flames sweeping the east section of the prison, and eluding pursuit, forded the Rio Grande and made their way into Juarez. There they told fellow countrymen that they had been soaked with gasoline and set on fire.

Disorders in the Mexican town were checked by heavy patrols sent out at once by the Carranza military authorities. Phelps, though still in a critical condition, was reported tonight to be slightly improved.

Salina, Kan., March 7.—Henry Sands went out on an inspection tour to the Kansas state penitentiary at Lansing last week and decided it was not such a bad place after all. Consequently he came back to Salina this week and announced he would discontinue his fight in the courts against a four year sentence on him several weeks ago for violating the prohibitory laws. A sheriff took him to the penitentiary today.

BANDITS ACTIVE ON BORDER AGAIN

By the Associated Press.

Brownsville, Texas, March 7.—Evidence of bandit activity in North Hidalgo county was received tonight when word reached here that a mail carrier had been captured on the Santa Anita ranch, by two Mexicans, presumably part of the band which murdered Filigenio Cuellar, and burned and robbed his store eighteen miles west of Laredo last night. A detachment of soldiers is being sent into the district tonight from Laredo.

The mail carrier who managed to escape late tonight reported the occurrence to Santa Anita ranch headquarters. Little could be learned of the situation owing to the remoteness of the section. It is sparsely settled, few Americans being located there.

Cananea Citizens Arrested Charged With Aiding Diaz

By the Associated Press.

Douglas, Ariz., March 7.—Twelve residents of Cananea, Sonora, including Pedro Escandon, the city judge, have been arrested on orders of Gen. P. Elias Calles, military governor of the state, according to persons arriving here tonight from that town. They were sent to Hermosillo, the capital of Sonora, for trial on charges of plotting in behalf of Felix Diaz, who is reported to have planned a new revolution in Mexico. It was said.

Maj. Francisco Aldos, Capt. Mariano Ortiz and Capt. Juan Ballester, alleged to bear commissions under Gen. Francisco Villa, will be tried in the near future before a military court at Agua Prieta, Sonora, on charges of inciting a rebellion against the de facto government. This statement was made today by Ives G. Lelevier, the Mexican consul here.

The men are alleged to be the leaders of the inhabitants of San Miguel de Cananea, who were driven into Chihuahua last December by Carranza adherents.

General Calles recently gave the San Miguelites permission to return from exile in Chihuahua on condition that they surrender their weapons for trial. Aldos, Ortiz and Ballester readily consented. It was said, and their following returned to their homes.

National Geography Society Treated to Unusual Concert

By the Associated Press.

Washington, March 7.—Remarkable demonstrations of recent achievements in the development of long distance and wireless telephony featured the annual meeting tonight of the National Geography society. Among the guests of honor were Dr. Alexander Graham Bell, inventor of the telephone, and Theodore N. Vail, president of the American Telephone and Telegraph company who met face to face for the first time in thirty years in spite of their mutual interests of almost a lifetime.

The diners heard by telephone broadcasts rolling against the California coast and at the same time watched moving pictures of the surf at the same point. Words and music of the Star Spangled Banner, picked up from a photograph by a wireless telephone receiver at the navy's great Arlington plant, went through the air to a long distance wire line out of New York which brought them to the banquet table. Secretary Lane of the interior department and John J. Cary, chief engineer of the American Telephone and Telegraph company, sat within ten feet of each other and carried on same route as the national anthem.

During the evening communication was established with points in Canada, Juarez, Mexico, Seattle, Washington, and Jacksonville, Fla.

Lennox Bankruptcy Matter Is Aired

By the Associated Press.

Washington, March 7.—Testimony that parties to the much discussed Lennox bankruptcy litigation were kept in the dark to the exact connection of Louis D. Brandeis with the case was given today before the senate sub-committee investigating Mr. Brandeis' fitness to be a supreme court justice.

James T. Lennox told him the committee that Brandeis had told him he would act as his counsel and that he did not learn until months after the assignment had been made that Brandeis was not representing his interests. Abe Stein, a Lennox creditor, said he had employed Brandeis to act for him, but that later the same day Brandeis had sent word he could not do so, but would act for Lennox.

England Expected Congress' Action

By the Associated Press.

London, March 8.—The result of the vote in congress on the McLennox resolution reached London too late for extended comment and most of the papers print the news without particularly featuring it, as the result had been generally forecast and the British public had dismissed the matter from the realm of uncertainty as soon as the result of the senate vote on the Gore resolution was announced.

The Graphic comments briefly: "It is hardly creditable to American statesmen of both parties that they have taken so definite a stand in defense of national honor. The next step lies with Germany. If she persists in the policy of sinking armed merchantmen, the probabilities are that soon American citizens will be drowned and American property destroyed. Then the American government will have to consider whether they will take that outrage simply or go to war."

No Action Taken on Car Shortage

By the Associated Press.

Washington, March 7.—After two days' discussion of freight congestion at the eastern terminals of trunk line railroads and of car shortage in the west, the informal conference called by the interstate commerce commission of representatives of the carriers, shippers and receivers of freight adjourned tonight without reaching an agreement on action to relieve the situation.

As a consequence of the discussion, it is probable many of the affected roads will lay definite proposals before the commission for increasing the demurrage and storage charges at terminals and reducing the time allowed receivers of freight to unload cars without extra charge.

From opinions expressed by many shippers and freight receivers, it is probable such charges will be opposed vigorously.

Antwerp Fire Brick Worth Half Million Are Held at Border

By the Associated Press.

San Antonio, March 7.—A shipment of fire bricks and other fire clay products valued at more than $500,000 from Antwerp, Belgium, consigned to Compania Carbonifera la Rosita at Monclova, Mex., is held up at Eagle Pass by the United States authorities pending disposition of the case. The material was to have been used for the construction of a large number of coke ovens at Rosita, state of Coahuila, but the revolution upset plans of the company, in which the Madero family is largely interested.

In event the bricks and other shapes are not shipped into Mexico duties amounting to about $22,000 will have to be paid to the United States.

Chinese Government Troops Victorious

By the Associated Press.

Washington, March 7.—The capture of two rebel strongholds by Chinese government troops within the last four days, with heavy losses resulting to the rebels, was reported to the Chinese legation here today in official dispatches from Peking. The legation made this announcement: "The troops under General Lung Chen Kuang, garrison commander of Kwang Si, have retaken Po Yai, the most important strategic point on the border of Yunnan. Po Yai fell after General Lung's troops had captured Yui Hsi forts and by climbing up a dangerous precipice behind the mountains and taking the rebels by surprise."

Several thousand rebels were killed. With the fall of Po Yai General Lung's forces will be able to advance rapidly toward the capital of Yunnan.

"Sui Chow, another important place in the southwest of Sze Chuan, has likewise fallen into the hands of the government troops, who took the entire prefecture of Sui. More than a thousand rebels were killed."

Flood Situation Well Under Control

By the Associated Press.

New Orleans, March 7.—Capt. H. L. Hetrick of the army engineer corps, who was detailed from Louisville to command the federal life and property salvage fleet in the flooded sections of Louisiana, will return to headquarters within a few days, it was announced tonight. Capt. W. E. Hunt, of the quartermasters' department of the army, also was expected to leave for his headquarters in St. Louis soon. These announcements were regarded tonight as indicating the flood situation was well under control and that further relief measures outside of those extended locally were not necessary.

The river stage at New Orleans today was twenty-one feet, a rise of one-tenth over last night, due to wind conditions, according to a weather bureau announcement.

Committee to Fix Miners' Wages Will Make Report Today

By the Associated Press.

New York, March 7.—The sub-committee of bituminous operators and miners who were drafting a new wage contract for western Pennsylvania, Ohio, Indiana and Illinois, completed their work late tonight and will report an agreement to the full conference here tomorrow.

One of the last things done was to fix the period of the new contract for two years beginning April 1. It also was decided that all internal differences shall be settled in the districts with the provision that nothing shall be done that will increase the cost of production or lower the earning capacity of the miners. All rules, including arbitration, incorporated in the present contract, shall remain in force unless changed by the districts by mutual consent.

The demands for an eight hour day from "bank to bank" weekly pay days and that every other Saturday be an idle one, were voted down.

He chanced to pick up a newspaper, part of the "props," and saw a picture of Miss Cox, who was visiting in Philadelphia. McLaughlin had dinner at the penitentiary today with his aged mother and his brother Ki McLaughlin. Charges Against Invaders of Mexico Ordered Dropped

By the Associated Press.

San Antonio, March 7.—The release of Second Lieutenant Peyton and Waldron has been ordered by Maj. Gen. Frederick Funston, and the military charges against them for crossing the Rio Grande several weeks ago to rescue United States soldiers who had been taken prisoners by Mexicans, have been dropped.

First Lieut. Mori, senior officer of the expedition, will be tried before a court-martial to be convened at Mercedes. All three officers have been under military arrest since the date of the occurrence, about three months ago.

After carefully investigating the case, General Funston decided that, in view of the fact that Lieutenants Peyton and Waldron were subordinate officers they should not be tried for the offense. The date of Lieutenant Mori's trial has not been fixed as yet. General Funston is still considering the case of Captain McElhannon, who, although he did not participate in the crossing, was the senior officer of the command.

Four soldiers were drowned when the small force, headed by the three officers, attempted to swim the Rio Grande to reach the United States. The case was referred back to him, with instructions to use his best judgment in the matter.

Bush, receiver of the St. Louis, Iron Mountain & Northern Railway company, to proceed at law to establish and enforce a claim of $114,769 as reimbursement for expenditures in connection with improvements and equipment.

The claim is made against a general fund of $802,642 held by the New York Trust company as trustee under a uniting mortgage.

The court directed the railroad to join with Bush in a suit against the trust company and Walker Hill, also trustee of the mortgage. This order is the outgrowth of suits in equity brought against the railroad.

TO KEEP HER FROM FALLING

Would Have to Catch Hold of Things. Lost Strength and Flesh. Doctor Recommended Cardui. Results Gratifying.

Brookhaven, Miss.—"I am in fine health now," writes Mrs. H. M. Russell, of R. F. D. 5, of this place, "and have been for some time. I owe this good health to Cardui. I am certain. I think I would have been dead before this if I had not taken this medicine. I was down in bed five months last summer. I had chronic inflammation so the doctor said... I suffered untold misery, mostly in my right side, but both sides hurt me—aching constantly. I got to the place where I couldn't even eat without severe pain. I had much headache and would often be quite blind from dizziness. I would have to catch hold of things to keep from falling. I lost all my strength and flesh. I became so poor that I was just bones covered with skin."

The doctor, on his visit told me to get Cardui and go to taking it. I took eight bottles in 3 months. In just a few days after starting with it, I began to improve and kept on until I got completely well. Today I am in really good health. I can do anything in the world in the shape of work. I am sure that I owe this all to Cardui. I would like to tell all women so."

Try Cardui for your troubles. For sale by all druggists.

MRS. J. W. DOWNER

FOR MRS. TRANHAM

During her winter visit, Mrs. W. D. Tranham of South Carolina has more than once been guest within the round Table for their study programs. Thus it came that Mrs. J. W. Downer felt the impulse to honor Mrs. Tranham before her departure, with an afternoon of pure fun with the Round Table members. This came on Monday and found added to members the Hamiltons, J. E. Guthrie and J. F. Wood. Several guessing contests, such as engendered, were introduced, the champions proving the Mesdames J. C. McElhannon, J. B. Hamilton, Arthur Jackson, J. B. Henry Tranham. As the more formal feature, Mrs. J. L. Kesler as spokesman for the company bid au revoir to Mrs. Tranham and expressed the pleasure her visit had given the Texas friends. About thirty formed the company entertained so acceptably by Mrs. Downer.

SHELTON-WHITE WEDDING

HIGH NOON MARRIAGE IN HAMLIN

The high noon marriage service of George Moore Shelton, eldest son of Doctor and Mrs. S. E. Shelton of this city, and Miss Ruth White, only daughter of Dr. and Mrs. White of Hamlin, was an event of more than passing moment in west Texas. Since his university years, and since his admission to the Texas bar, Mr. Shelton has resided in Hamlin. Following the ceremony there was immediate passage overland to catch train for New Orleans. After ten days, return to Hamlin will find a pretty new home opened, and the ceremony there was permanently among their home friends. In June it is the prospect that the entire family will gather here with Dr. and Mrs. Shelton in welcome to the new daughter. The wedding service is reported of attractive detail, morning dress prevailing. Mrs. Shelton and Frances Shelton were wedding guests from Waco.

SHAKSPERE CLUB ACTIVE

TOWARDS RIVERSIDE DRIVE

Water commissioners, landscape gardeners and the committee from the Shakspeare club, all these are more than interested in the next beauty spot which is now assured for Riverside Drive. The committee, the Mesdames J. W. Downs, J. M. Hale and J. P. Carpenter, with the club president, Miss Roberta Wright, ex-officio member, reported to the club on Monday afternoon, and thus imparted their own enthusiasm over the prospects. It is too early to give the public actual detail, but these details are being enthusiastically discussed, and brought as near reality as is practice. Already another woman's organization is mentioning a similar plan for Riverside Drive. This much is the unanimous opinion of promoters, that is, the Shakspeare club, when com-

COZY TEA BRIDGE CLUB

WITH MRS. MCMULLEN

Several were present by special invitation and a special prize was presented by the hostess and by Mrs. Louis Wells, who had several times been bidden into the club. Thus there was for Mrs. James Sampson, winner of club high score, a favor, as well as one for Mrs. A. C. Patton as winner of high score among guests, and a general cut among the club, for the Wells trophy, a pretty piece of silver. Mrs. Guy McKnight won it. Mrs. McKnight is also the next hostess. In offering lunch, Misses Mary Lou Bagby and Lucille Ellsworth served. Playing were the Mesdames James Barnard, A. L. Brown, A. C. Patton, James Sampson, M. E. Yinger, Guy McKnight, James Brodie, H. T. Cruger, Louis Wells, S. C. Moore of Sherman, with Miss Nettie Autrey.

TODAY BRINGS CLOSE

OF SOCIETY SEASON

Today is Ash Wednesday, come to be marked as the transition between winter and summer life. This year the calendar date is later than for many past years and will be until 1945. Hence, society finds departure from the accustomed order of things. It is generally conceded that social life is indoor and conventional until Ash Wednesday usher in the Lenten tide. After forty days of seclusion, society emerges with the Easter tide for its outdoor and unconventional period, the time known as the "small season." But, with the last week of April bringing our Easter gayety, it is questionable whether we will revive social life. The time for summer departures will be near, and the excitement of the "sweet girl graduate" on. This remains to be seen.

Be the spring revival as it may, society today observes the withdrawal from that life which has been followed since Cotton Palace season opened the winter of brilliancy. It has been an unusually brilliant season; there is no gainsaying that, made so by the unusually large number of debutantes, and the welcome to these individually and collectively. Three large private dances at the club, where the Mesdames W. H. Hays, Guy McKnight and Clarence Hubby entertained, was followed by the jolly mask carnival of Miss Frances Van Boddie. The debutantes' Leap Year ball adds another. The cordination and the small at the Cotton Palace, the formal opening of the Progress club, these are some of the events which have been of more than passing note. Bridge parties, private teas, private dinners, both home and club, crowded more than all these have been, crowded into the short months. The house warming of Mrs. Edward Marshall, the brilliant home dinners of Mr. and Mrs. George McLendon, also Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Bass, we have had it all except the wedding ball. Never in a winter has Waco society presented so good a show. Mrs. Hutcherson is correct; yet, the idea John Wesley found in reading Lord Bacon. From this idea he clothed in the words which we so often quote.

After a few days with her mother, Mrs. W. D. Lacy, Mrs. Albert Clifton is again in her cottage on Columbus street. For the past few days Miss Kate Edmond has been her guest. Let the good work go on. West Austin leaves with Thursday. She goes as Waco duchess in the gayety of Horse Show season in Fort Worth. Miss McLendon will be guest of Miss Kate Edmond.

The Messrs. and Mesdames Robert Allen, Bolivar Nettles, Alfred Abel, W. Y. Wilson and S. C. Lackey were the Waco friends who went down to Marlin for the funeral of W. M. Gunnell.

Let us all adopt the styles now prevalent with many, that of having every man in Waco a good-looking fellow. The old chair of state against the wall is out of date.

We can not understand the mother who does not train her child to be kind to animals. If for no more serious motive than the training which it gives the child's better nature. Since revival of colonial painted furniture has seized fancy, a new custom has been introduced. One young woman, a Miss Louisa Pleasant of Richmond, Virginia, has turned her talent to good account. Here is an idea for the brush of Waco bairns. There is no exuding turpentine sentiment in Waco when it comes to beautiful parking and yards. Every year finds more landscape work done, and a greater claim to beauty for the good work to go on. Commercial is all right; let that good work go on, too. But, with it, let the women impart some of the aesthetic. It is the case of "Put yourself in his place." When you visit other cities, what attracts you? Beautiful grounds among the very first things. Then, why not give our visitors the same pleasure?

Let us be consistent in our sacrifice of the bridge table during Lent. There is not much consistency in refusing to entertain the club (that means the women) but to have a game every day with the neighbors.

After some remodeling is done, Mr. and Mrs. Bart Moore, Junior, will be in their own home, the former Hengst cottage, West Austin.

THESE HATS WILL BE SEEN IN SPRING

Look for hats like these on the heads of the fair ones this coming spring and summer. The hat at the top is a very simple though attractive chic turban. The model is of white broadcloth with a telescoping crown.

For a "Paisley" or some other shawl. What could be done with a shawl on sweltering Monday?

Why not other women's organizations follow lead of the C. W. B. M. and make Baby Week a practical observance? The C. W. B. M. is making baby garments and sending to Miss Roberta Wright, local chairman of Baby Week. Many a little form will be made more comfortable through this laudable.

Miss Laurine Gay mailed her last post cards from Salt Lake City which means that she arrives at home with in a very few days. Presumably this was the last stop in passage from California.

It is all very easy to talk about the simplicity of flower treatment among the Japanese, but just you begin to study how this is done, and you will find a science for every stem, even the comparative length of this stem, and a life study before this floral arrangement is complete.

With the Presbyterian women absorbed in their revival services, the Catholic and Episcopal women entering the most solemn period of their religious year, affairs social are decidedly diminished.

Mrs. J. H. Hutcherson was the first to give a flower treatment presentation. The first use of our well-known "Cleanliness is next to godliness" came from none other than John Wesley in a sermon on Dress. So far so good, and Mrs. Hutcherson is correct; yet, the idea John Wesley found in reading Lord Bacon. From this idea he clothed in the words which we so often quote.

Mardi Gras Ends at New Orleans With Parade and Ball

By the Associated Press.

New Orleans, La., March 7.—New Orleans' 1916 Mardi Gras season was brought to a close tonight with the crowning at the Rex ball of John J. Mapp as king and Miss Inez Lucille Ellis as queen of the carnival and a parade of the Comus ball at the French opera house. The subject of the Comus pageant, consisting of "twenty brilliantly illuminated cars, was 'glimpses of the modern world of art.'"

The Rex parade of twenty cars depicting "visions from the poets" was given during the day. Another feature of the day's festivities was the appearance on the streets of the bands of maskers and parading of carnival clubs.

Illinois Pros Plan for Dry Campaign

By the Associated Press.

Chicago, March 7.—Legislation providing for ward, precinct and resident district local option will be demanded of the next Illinois general assembly, according to anti-saloon leaders who met here today to plan the year's dry campaign in the state.

F. Scott McBride, state superintendent of the Illinois Anti-Saloon league, said 1225 out of 1430 townships in the state were entirely dry.

"To get Chicago into the dry column this year must be broken up into smaller units than the present township law permits, that is why we ask for ward and precinct option laws," he declared.

Strikebreakers Say Were Hired to Kill

By the Associated Press.

New York, March 7.—After indictments charging attempted murder had been returned today against four men alleged to have been implicated in the shooting of a guard employed by Manhattan strikers affected by the shirtmakers' strike, Assistant District Attorney Doelling declared the prisoners had informed him they had been hired for $100 by the shirtmakers' union "to beat up and kill strikebreakers."

Richard Harrison, one of the quartet, admitted, according to Mr. Doelling, that he had agreed to shoot any one of the strikers who was killed.

William Sherwood, William Flasher and Joe Donjano.

The Baralong, a British patrol boat, last fall sank a German submarine and allegations were made that men from the Baralong afterward killed members of the German submarine crew while they were in the water or on board the American steamer Nicolson, which had picked them up.

The British government disclaims any intention to discuss further its general charges of the inhumanity of Germany's sea warfare, which it holds have been amply proven.

SMASHING A BACHELOR'S IDEALS

A court of domestic relations, where all the troubles of ill-matched married couples are aired, is evidently no place for a bachelor, not because the bachelor has no sympathy, but because all this array of domestic infelicity is likely to shatter his ideals of wedded bliss. At least this is the conclusion reached by Judge Jacob H. Hopkins, a bachelor, who has been sitting on the bench in the court of domestic relations in Chicago, and who has asked and received a transfer. He is succeeded by Judge Newcomer, a married man.

For the last six months Judge Hopkins has listened to unending tales of marital woes and while this might be calculated to work upon the nerves of the ordinary man, it was not the nervous strain that Judge Hopkins objected to. He is a bachelor, but like most other bachelors, perhaps, he entertains the hope of being a happily married man some day, and his transfer from this particular bench was brought about solely through his desire that his ideal of a happy married existence might not be shattered before he makes a definite venture toward such a consummation.

"Once I viewed marriages through rosy mists of sentiment and poetry," Judge Hopkins said. "I believed there was still love in the world—love that endured from the altar to the grave. In the court of domestic relations my ideals died one by one. Day after day I listened to nothing but the sorrows and tragedies of married couples; to sordid tales of wife-beatings, disloyal husbands, treacherous wives, love drowned in wine, love whose requiem was the fox-trot music of the cabaret. I began to wonder whether any such thing as marital happiness existed on earth. So I asked to be transferred. It was a last desperate measure of self-defense—a measure to save at least some of my ideals."

There are lots of men in Chicago of whom we are not very fond, but even so wicked a city as that big burg is undoubtedly contains a number of sweet, talented, domestically inclined women who would be able to make just such a home life for Judge Hopkins as his ideals call for and here's hoping some of these good women will exercise their leap year prerogative and go after him. For a man who is as careful to preserve his ideals as this man demonstrates he is, is pretty apt to make a good husband, and a good husband is not to be despised even in this day of ever increasing activity among the women.

Superintendent T. D. Brooks of the Hillsboro public schools has been elected president of the Oklahoma State Normal school at Durant, but we do not know whether he will accept. Those Oklahomans are bad on coming to this state for educators, having recently called Superintendent J. W. Cantwell from the Fort Worth schools to the presidency of Oklahoma Agricultural and Mechanical college. By the way, both Cantwell and Brooks are Baylor men.

An uncompromising foe of the liquor traffic passed away Monday in the death of W. P. Lane of Fort Worth. He had the courage of his convictions, fought straight from the shoulder, and asking no quarter from the enemy, gave none to the enemy. We regret that so valiant a fighter for the cause should fall in the prime of life.

Representative Joe H. Eagle of the Houston district announces he will not stand for re-election. It is now in order for some one to call his democracy into question.

THE PART OF THE FARMER'S WIFE.

"The farmer's wife who regards it her duty to make other members of the family comfortable and cheerful is just as truly a producer as if she went to the fields daily with the farm hands. In fact, she is a greater factor for economical production when she keeps the home in order, prepares wholesome and nutritious foods for the family and speaks a kind word to the tired and weary than if she tried to divide her duties by working in the fields.

"Cheerful companionship is a great stimulus to diligent work. It revives the weary, comforts the depressed in spirit and encourages the discontented. Many farmers' wives work too hard and deprive themselves of rest, study and preparation necessary for household administration. They are so anxious to be producers and thus help those who toil in the field that they forget that great influence of cheerful companionship which none but wife and mother can give.

"The manager of the farm can do much to encourage the keeper of his home by providing those comforts that save labor and conserve health and strength. He can increase the efficiency of the wife and mother by investing in home conveniences that are indispensable to cheerfulness; he can increase his own efficiency in production by making home life comfortable and pleasant. Thought should be given to the home and its arrangement with a view of reducing home-makers' burdens. More time should be had for reading, studying and recreation. Doubtless this would help the wife and mother become more efficient.

"The health and the efficiency of the farmer's wife are far more valuable to the farm manager than his immediate productive capital. Her cooperation in sympathy and companionship is productive capital, but it is more; it is that influence which impels the manager to do his best work; it is that example which causes the husband and father to live before his children and among his neighbors so that he will not be ashamed of his character as a citizen."

One of the most interesting and most horrifying bits of information gathered by farm investigators in this state was that several of the wealthiest black land farmers in North Texas had worn out two or three wives in the accumulation of their fortunes. Many farm women are ready not only to bear their whole share of the burden of making a subsistence for the family, but to do more than their share. But the farmers should not permit their wives and daughters to overtax themselves in the performance of that necessarily heavy work which characterizes the farm. Labor saving devices are numerous and within easy reach and the investment in conserved health and energy, increased cheerfulness, and enlarged usefulness to the family in other ways that would result from lightening the loads of the farm women would prove one of the best of the head of the family could make. The real progressive farmer today is the one who takes care of his wife and daughters and permits them to develop along the many useful lines for which nature fashioned them.

Members of congress are now busy sending out to their constituents free garden seed, and will be greatly disappointed if it doesn't raise a crop of votes, says the New Orleans States. And the desire to reap votes in return is the chief motive in sending out the seed. Members of congress do not expect any real good to come to the recipient of the seed from the use of them.

It is not our fight, but we appreciate the position taken by the state board of medical examiners in asking that the licenses of all physicians convicted of violating the Harrison anti-narcotic law be revoked. The welfare of the people is not safe in the hands of physicians who violate a law for a consideration or in order to appease the appetite of a patient for "dope."

School children of San Antonio received a valuable lesson in patriotism Monday afternoon, when, on the occasion of the observance of Texas Decoration Day, they marched out to the grave of Ben Milam, one of the patriots of the Texas revolution, banded it with flowers, sang patriotic songs and listened to stirring addresses on the significance of the day.

It appears that the time has about arrived when we should apply the policy of the initiative, referendum and recall to the members and proceedings of congress. The application of that principle now would result in retiring several members of both branches who are seeking to play politics for themselves at the expense of the nation.

Life of the peace officers of Palestine will be anything but peaceful now that the city commission has passed an ordinance requiring that chickens be kept at home.

WHY NOBODY LOVES US.

That no foreign nation, with the possible exception of little Belgium, has any marked fondness for the United States has come to be generally accepted, declares the San Antonio Light. Some of the European belligerents make no bones about it; they frankly dislike us, and a few of them less overtly detest us. Their regard for the United States began to fall below par when they realized that this country would not approve their definitions of neutrality to the extent of joining arms with them in the present conflict. But that was only the original reason why the foreign nations developed a dislike for the United States. A broader, farther reaching reason may be found in their apparent realization of the opportunity which the United States has to capture the prize in pursuit of which the belligerents unleashed their dogs of war.

An insight into the possibilities of the situation, from the standpoint of the United States, is afforded by an item which recites:

"Probably the most extensive work of organization ever undertaken by any government in the history of the world is being conducted by the United States government with a view to placing the nation at the head of the world's trade. Realizing the opportunity to force to the head of the commercial countries, the United States is preparing to enter every possible avenue of extension of American influence."

It was rivalry for commercial supremacy that operated as the most potent factor in bringing about the European war. Though there were other factors, they were, in reality, subordinate to this one. But the ambition of Great Britain and Germany was given a means of expression different from that which the United States is adopting. Back of their commercial activities was a kind of national covetousness politely and grandiloquently described as imperialism.

So, if the United States, by means of fair competition and native industry, can snatch the bone for which the European belligerents are contending, it would hardly be in the nature of things for those European nations to regard this country as a beloved friend. In this light their anxiousness to embroil the United States in the struggle seems to have had a broader reason than could have been afforded by their desire for such additions to their military and naval strength as the participation of the United States in the struggle would have furnished.

In the process of claiming the legitimate reward for its industry the United States may find it exceedingly hard to maintain neutrality. As many obstacles as the European belligerents can devise will doubtless be thrown in the way. But those obstacles will dwindle in size and number as the United States takes measures to hold its own. If this country were now fully prepared to defend its rights the world over, it would experience no serious difficulty in maintaining its neutrality. The European nations, while tearing at each other's throats, could only accept Fate's ironical decision to give the spoils, not to the victor in the armed struggle now raging across the Atlantic, but to the nation which, maintaining a neutral attitude, kept its strength unimpaired by the enervating process of war.

Dr. Alois Helinger of Austria nominates William Jennings Bryan for the Nobel peace prize. If it would induce the ex-secretary of state to quit trying to embarrass the national administration we would be willing to vote him the $40,000, but when it comes to real service in the cause of peace we think Henry Ford has greater claims upon the award.

Now that Theodore E. Burton, Senator LaFollette, Senator Cummins, Senator Weeks, Charles Warren Fairbanks and a host of others have cast their hats into the ring in the race for the republican presidential nomination, the New York Telegram is led to observe that the ring will soon have enough hats to have a rummage sale.

That's good news from the federal department of labor to the effect that manufacturing plants in seven leading industries of the United States have increased their working forces an average of 15 per cent during the last year, while wages paid out in these industries have increased nearly 30 per cent.

FIRST PRESBYTERIAN REVIVAL CONTINUES

REV. FRANK WRIGHT PREACHES TO LARGE AUDIENCES AT EACH SERVICE.

What Shall It Profit a Man if He Gain the Whole World and Lose His Own Soul, Subject of Sermon.

The preaching of Rev. Frank Hall Wright still continues at the First Presbyterian church. Afternoon services are held at 3:15 and evening services at 7:45 o'clock. Interest is increasing and people are coming from other towns to hear the evangelist.

At the evening service the quartette sang, "I Need Thee Every Hour" and the topic of the sermon was: "What Shall It Profit a Man if He Gain the Whole World and Lose His Own Soul?"

Dr. Wright said in part: "From a business proposition, what would a man gain if he got the world and lost his soul? He would gain three things:

"He would have all the money in the world—all the mines, the Kimberley diamond mines and the mines of all precious metals and stones.

"He would gain power. He would be the only potentate in the world. But would this satisfy him? There have been four great world powers, and Alexander, one of them, wept for other worlds to conquer.

"He would gain all the pleasure. All palaces would be his, but does it pay to gain all these and lose your soul?"

"You cannot feed your soul on dry husks—and dollars and cents. The man who serves self, serves to die. I want to tell you, friends, that God has not spoken in vain. There has been only one sacrifice for sin—Jesus Christ. If you reject Him, what will you do? Now is the accepted time; now is the time of salvation."

For That Tired Feeling Take Trip to China Springs Says Man Who Tried It

By Staff Correspondent.

"Don't take Peruna; take a trip to China Springs and around." If I were a doctor and had to prescribe for a patient, I'd give him the prescription above and see that he took it.

It's the safest, surest, quickest relief for that tired, thirsted, ill-humored feeling that I know of. Best results can be obtained if you take this prescription in a "Tin Lizzy," because when you get off the main pike on the side roads, it takes pulling and some climbing that one would hardly want to subject a Cadillac to, but if you don't happen to have a "Lizzy," take the trip any way.

Start out early some morning and don't take your dinner for you won't need it—there's plenty to eat in that section of the country and when it comes to tickling the palate with good, wholesome, toothsome viands, there are some housewives on this road who will make a hit with you. Make your first station out at Cameron park.

Wait around for a few minutes out there, draw a few long breaths, get up some steam, thank your God for living in a country where nature has made it possible to boast a park like Cameron, and drive on.

Beat it out the main pike until you get to Mrs. W. C. Simons' residence. W. C. himself lives at the same place, but you can take it from me that Mrs. Simons is responsible for a good share of the things that are in evidence here that make a fellow wish he lived in the country, but I must be fair with the old gentleman and tell you that, he is equally responsible for the genuine Southern hospitality you get every time you stop.

Bosqueville is the first cigar station on the route and while there aren't many stores in the town, the people will treat you right and make you glad you came. The pike is full of good folks. On every hand you find them; they call it route three. It's hardly possible for me to tell about them, as I came to them, but on the two days' trip I came across a bunch of them and I like them all.

Among some of the folks I saw were C. L. Hatfield, N. Shaw, R. Hannah, E. Crump, J. E. Hutton, Otto Starling, D. J. Harrell, J. H. Boyd, J. B. Wardlow, C. C. Stewart, J. R. Layne, J. M. Crocker, the Horn boys, John Gorman, G. W. Rents, T. Q. Scott, A. M. Woodward, L. Mathis, M. McNamara, T. M. Mc-

Cravy, C. W. Burt, Jim Leonard, G. W. Scott, J. Loggie, Philip Cates, Ben Roberts, N. Z. Stewart, Jim Wilson, M. Stewart, J. C. Grayson, E. P. McNamara, D. G. Stewart, A. J. Webb, Will Talbert, R. A. Brown, John Garrett, R. B. Gross, M. M. Boyd, W. R. Woodward, Mrs. G. H. West, T. A. Burt, Herman West, C. E. Shakespeare, I. J. Spence, W. T. Hicks, E. H. Mitchell, J. M. Cook, Tay Garrett, C. B. Brooks, T. P. Johnson, J. W. Ragsdale, J. C. Jenkins, Ed S. Abbott, Wallace Guyton, J. F. Cobbs, Frank Oldham, A. W. Osteen, E. L. Garrett, W. H. Trammell, W. C. Roberts, J. H. Fanning, J. M. Talbert, W. H. Johnson, J. M. Steinbeck, Dr. Wilcox, G. T. Anderson, J. W. Maury, E. A. McNamara, W. H. Gorman, J. E. Johnson, J. F. Roberts, R. E. Conner, Bert Hickson, F. L. Johnson, J. E. Calhoun, T. J. Fant, N. F. Minor, R. S. Barnes, W. Brown, J. A. Weaver, E. Wortham, T. M. Dilworth, Mrs. H. Goldman, Mrs. A. A. Smith and many more whose names I can't remember.

Then you cross over to route one, out of China Springs, and you will meet, among others, J. N. Hannah, W. S. Boyd, R. Harvey, H. B. Culpepper, W. J. Higginbotham, J. D. Hart, Gus Walker, Jake Crump, W. D. Wilson and D. B. Hill, and if my memory were longer I'd name a bunch more, but I could tie to and never miss a bet. Fine folks in a fine country.

If you want to stay all night and like city life, drive up the road to China Springs and stop at the Barnett hotel. Mr. Barnett runs a store, sells meat, among other things; makes a specialty of fresh country hen fruit, and Mrs. Barnett takes a delight in putting such things in shape for the board.

Make a fellow want to board by the month. The dining room is as high as the Raleigh hotel in Waco, nor is the menu so varied, but take it as coming from me that what you get at Mother Barnett's place is as palatable as the Raleigh is high in stories.

The great Maker of Good Things never did a better job than when He mapped out the China Springs, Erath, Bosqueville and Bosque river country. It's one of the best stretches of country that I have had the pleasure to drive over and the people living therein are the kind of folks after my heart. They are making things count from every standpoint at this particular writing. Corn planting is a common program throughout the entire section, much of it already in the ground, and farming land in general is in fine shape.

Schools? I should say there are good schools throughout this strip of country. I was very much surprised at the educational advantages. For instance, in the city of China Springs, a splendid building with a splendid public school system in operation and another teacher added today to take care of the overcrowded. According to Miss Katherine Lantrip and Lola Langford, two of the prominent teachers in the public schools, I am advised that plans are on foot leading to the betterment and efficiency of the public schools for next year. They are nearly 200 pupils in the school and splendid work is being done.

The China Springs and tributary communities are a great asset to Waco. They are populated with a wide-awake, progressive, aggressive, home-loving citizenship and I am proud of them. The good roads have greatly solved the marketing problems for the majority of this section, but among their present needs are more new roads. They need more co-operation from the business men and commercial organizations from Waco and other sections of this district of country. They are producers, living in a producing section of Texas, and while the auto, the auto truck and other quick-time facilities have done much to bring the Waco markets closer, there is a great lot of hard conscientious work to be done to perfect the marketing situation and it invites the careful study and thorough co-operation of Waco and its people. I like the China Springs country, I like the people that inhabit it and if you haven't seen it, if you don't know the hospitality of these neighbors of yours to the northwest, it's your great loss and you ought to square your self.

Former Wacoan Loses Life in Accident

Ben A. Ish of Pine Bluff, a former resident of this city, has met with a fatal accident, according to word received here yesterday morning by Mrs. W. H. Judge, a sister of the deceased. No further information was received, the message just stating that he had met death in an accident. Mr. and Mrs. Judge left at once for Pine Bluff.

The message was sent by the wife of Mr. Ish. The latter was an engineer of the Cotton Belt railway and it is presumed that he met with the accident while attending to his duties. The body will be brought here for interment, Waco being the old family home. His father, Captain Ben Ish, died here about seven years ago.

The sister here, the deceased is survived by his mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Ish, Corpus Christi; three sisters, Mrs. E. Tankersley of Corpus Christi, Mrs. P. D. Smith of China Springs, and Mrs. R. B. Wofford of New Orleans.

Chinese Tong War Is on in Frisco

By the Associated Press.

San Francisco, March 7.—One Chinaman dead and seven wounded represented the casualties tonight of warfare between gunmen of the rival Suey Ong and Hop Sing tong. Hostilities began last spring in a Chinese theatre when Gee Wong, a Hop Sing man, was shot to death and four others wounded. Gunmen of the Hop Sing sought revenge today and shot down three Chinese in the Oriental quarter, two of whom may die. The police were on the alert tonight in anticipation of further gun duels. One arrest has been made, that of the alleged slayer of Gee Wong.

Settlement of the dispute was promised by the Chinese Peace association but no steps had been taken for calling a meeting of the tong.

Children Cry FOR FLETCHER'S CASTORIA

Judge Clark Gives Witness Brief Lesson in Punctuality

Failing to reach the court room on time brought T. P. Barnard, a juror in the Seventy-fourth district court, several hours in jail yesterday. It was in the case of W. A. Gram vs. Ike Levy et al, trial of which started Monday. When Judge Erwin J. Clark called court together yesterday, only eleven jurors were in the box.

The court waited awhile. Still the missing man appeared not. Finally Judge Clark had District Clerk R. V. McClain send out an attachment for the absentee. And just then Mr. Barnard came in.

His explanation was simple, for he said he didn't know what time it was. But it was not stifling. Consequently, Judge Clark instructed him that he could consider himself a guest of the county in the domicile presided over by Hizzoner Ed Costley, namely, the jail, until 5 p. m., excusing him from jury service for the remainder of the week.

By agreement, the trial then proceeded with eleven jurors. There is no law in Texas requiring jurors to provide themselves with watches and see that they keep good time, but it is probable that from now on jurors in the Seventy-fourth district court will be on hand when the hour for opening the daily session rolls around.

More Prairie Fires in Western Kansas

By the Associated Press.

Dodge City, Kan., March 7.—Two more prairie fires broke out in Southern Ford county this afternoon and are being driven southward by a strong wind that has blown smoke and cinders far ahead of the blaze, almost preventing approach by the volunteer fire fighters. It is feared the town of Ashland and the big Frizzell ranch may be destroyed.

A prairie fire that devastated thousands of acres in four counties near Dodge City were extinguished last night after having burned thirty-six hours and had caused the death of a boy and the severe burning of a woman.

Engine Co. No. 4 Racing Team Issues Challenge to All

Baylor Engine company will enter a team in the contest for the cup in the firemen's races to be part of the program of the Fourth of July celebration at the Cotton Palace grounds under the auspices of the Central Labor council, according to the decision of the company at its monthly meeting held in the station last night. Dock Meers, William Fischer and S. J. Flood were named as a racing committee to have charge of the selection of the eleven men who will make up the team.

The Baylor company issues a challenge to any other firemen's racing team in the city or other nearby cities, the question of superiority to be decided in the contests July 4.

S. J. Flood was elected by the company as delegate to the firemen's state convention in New Braunfels in May, with William Fischer alternate.

A number of suggestions with regard to proposed amendment of the burial fund system were presented, and members of the company will attend the mass meeting of the department next Friday night, at which time amendments will be considered.

An attendance of 150 was reported for the company meeting last night.

BROOKS CANDIDACY WELL RECEIVED ON EAST TEXAS TOUR

Dr. S. P. Brooks, candidate for the United States senate, is receiving the most flattering receptions throughout East Texas where he has been speaking regularly following the formal opening of his campaign at Marshall on the night of March 2, according to reports from that city. Following his opening address at Marshall he visited Gilmer, Pittsburg, Willsboro, Mineola, Longview, Henderson and Troup, speaking at Troup last night. From Troup he will go to Jacksonville, Ruess, Cushing, Nacogdoches, Lufkin and Livingston and will close the week's engagements in Houston Saturday night when he will attend the big gridiron banquet scheduled for that city at that time. The candidate has been met by the best citizens of the various communities he has visited, frequently with brass bands, and has received cordial endorsement of his platform and pledges of support from all classes of people. So far, his receptions have been more enthusiastic than Dr. Brooks anticipated early in the campaign and his audiences have been large and sympathetic.

After filling his engagement at Houston Saturday night Dr. Brooks will be at home for a few days. One of the very encouraging features of his swing through East Texas, to his friends, at least, is that it evidences a very large support in that section of the state where it was presumed that Governor Campbell had his greatest following. It is generally conceded that the race for the nomination for the pros are concerned, lies between Dr. Brooks and Governor Campbell.

Prosperity Banquet Gets Good Publicity in N. B. C. Magazine

In the February issue of the N. B. C. Magazine the trade publication of the National Biscuit company, there appears one of the best views of the open air good roads and prosperity banquet that was held on South Sixth street between Austin and Franklin streets on the night of November 30, that has been seen in any publication. The banquet, held under the auspices of the Y. M. B. L., was a big proposition in every way, and the fact that Uneda biscuits were served on that occasion justified the use of the picture in the company magazine.

The magazine goes into all the 2,260 branch houses of the National Biscuit company and its large circulation gives to the illustrated story a large advertising value for Waco as a city that does things on a large scale.

The public is cordially invited to be present at the entertainment and all candidates are especially urged to be present.

Health Expert's Second Lecture Well Attended

Quite a large crowd of both men and women heard Dr. C. L. Wells, the health expert from Detroit, at the Fifth Street Methodist church last night in his public address on "How to Get Well and Keep Well Through Nature's Own Remedies—Air, Water and Proper Exercise and Food." He will follow up last night's address with another at 7:30 o'clock tonight at the First Baptist church at 2:30 o'clock. This lecture also will be free.

Mrs. Wells, who is also a specialist along the lines of restoring and preserving health, will address the women of the city in the main assembly room of the Fifth Street Methodist church Friday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, this hour being named in order to prevent a conflict with the regular church societies. Her lecture will also be free.

Growing Interest Marks Revival at Turner St. Church

Congregations continue to grow in size at the revival meeting in progress at the Turner Street church in East Waco. The interest is deepening with each service and the results are proving very gratifying, though the largest expectation of the meeting is yet to be met. There have already been quite a number of conversions, with twelve additions to the church.

Every indication is that it is to culminate in one of the greatest revivals ever known in this section of the city. Arrangements have been made to continue it for the next week or two, if need be, for the entire month.

Rev. W. B. Holland is assisting the pastor, W. P. Moroney, preaching each day at 8 a. m. and 7:30 p. m.

A matter of special interest is the department prayer meetings held at 7 p. m. in the different rooms of the church.

ALL NAVIGATORS HERE BUT TWO OUTFIELDERS

CATCHERS TOLAND AND JACOBS REPORT, LEAVING ONLY JAMES AND BITTLE MISSING.

First Practice Game Played With the Score Uncertain—Several Home Runs Inside the Fence.

And still the Waco ball club is shy a couple of outfielders. Catcher Toland arrived yesterday noon and Catcher Jacobs several hours later, but Jesse James and Bittle are still numbered among the missing. Manager Ellis Hardy said yesterday that he expected both of them in by this noon, as transportation had been sent them some time ago.

The first real baseball practice took place yesterday afternoon. In the morning the men were given some work-out, but after dinner sides were chosen up and a regular game was staged. Cliff Hill, Buddy Tanner and Fred Wohlleben covered themselves with glory, all three of them getting home runs inside the park. Just what the score was nobody knows, but it was something like unimportant to unimportant. Turkey Reilly played first on one team and Norman Cole third. Malmquist went to second and Clemons to short. This impromptu infield did very well, but it certainly looked odd-time to see Wohlleben, Conwell, Tanner and Grubb forming the same stone wall that did so much last year to help Waco win the pennant.

With the five old infielders to depend on, Manager Hardy is not worrying at all. Clemons is said to be a good an outfielder as he is an infielder and he showed up in fine fashion yesterday.

The Big Skipper had pitchers playing in almost every position on the diamond and he has almost a whole team of them. There are Donalds, Hill, Zinn, Cleman, Taylor, Hall and others, and every one of them appears to have considerable of the old stuff. Oesle Hall is about as big as a minute, but he heaves 'em across like an old timer.

Just as practice broke up, Jacobs introduced himself to Mr. Hardy, having just got in. The new catcher, as mentioned by Al Walters, has the build of a ball player and his head is crowned with a mop of brick red hair that looms up like a searchlight.

Toland and Smith did the receiving for the respective sides. Big Tom Toland appears to be in tip-top form right at the start and the gamekeeper had also looks like he might have the makings of a good catcher in him. Reilly and Jacobs will probably take their turn behind the bat this afternoon, the weather permitting.

Things are going fine and the large crowd of fans that was out to witness the work-out yesterday were very much satisfied with the outlook. If Waco does not win the pennant, the bunch will be in the finish, anyway, in the opinion of the fans, for it is a real gang of ball players under Ellis Hardy again this year.

BASEBALL LEAGUE TO BE FORMED TODAY BY KATY EMPLOYES

Schedule for the baseball league composed of teams made up of employees of the Katy road in the various cities of the state will be held in the Chamber of Commerce rooms this morning at 10 o'clock. The organization of the baseball league is a part of the general plans of the railroad authorities to promote the welfare of the employees. The first move of which was the track meet in Denison last year.

The meeting today will be attended by C. C. Elliott of Dallas, assistant to the general superintendent, who has general direction of athletics, and E. B. Woodmansee of Denison, general manager of baseball, as well as local managers from Denison, Fort Worth, Wichita Falls, Smithville, Houston and Waco. Superintendent J. W. Evans of the Texas Central division also will attend the meeting. The local manager is George H. Wiebusch, cashier in the local freight office of the road.

It is planned to organize two leagues, one in north Texas and one in Central Texas, to be held between the two leagues will decide the championship. Playing will probably start about April 1, the exact date to be decided today when the schedule will be made out.

Harvard Football Stars Flunk Out

By the Associated Press. Cambridge, Mass., March 7.—Harvard's football squad for next fall received a heavy blow today when three of its strongest candidates, Captain-elect J. A. Gilman of Honolulu, a guard; Thomas H. Enwright of Fall River and W. G. Boles of Boston, both backfield stars, were asked by the college administrative board to withdraw from college because of failure to pass the mid-year examinations.

Under the faculty rules, Gilman and Boles, even though they are able to return to college, will not be allowed to represent Harvard on the gridiron.

Enwright still has a chance for reinstatement if he attends the summer school and passes examinations.

RAIN STOPPS POLO GAME.

By the Associated Press. Aiken, S. C., March 7.—The polo game between the Camden and the Pine Tree clubs in the semi-finals for the Aiken cup, was called today because of rain at the end of the seventh period. Bessie Barriscale in "The Last Act," Hippodrome today and tomorrow.

THEATRES

"The Last Act."

A situation to try the emotional powers of any actor is found in the closing scenes of "The Last Act," an Ince-Triangle feature that is showing at the Hippodrome today. Miss Bessie Barriscale is given the role, and this statement alone is enough to assure the delicate and convincing handling of the great situation. Miss Barriscale is one of the most pleasing and most talented actresses playing for Mr. Ince, and the productions in which she stars have come to be eagerly looked forward to by the public.

Always a subtle actress and a natural, convincing one, Miss Barriscale gives an exceptionally strong and fine characterization of Ethel Duprey, the actress tempted to listen to the pleas of a married man and be the means of breaking up a home. Miss Barriscale very recently appeared in "The Green Swamp" and "Honor's Altar." Clara Williams, who plays with William S. Hart in "Hell's Hinges," has the role of Mrs. Hale in this picture. Harry Keenan, a young actor who has as many as three hundred roles to his credit on the speaking stage, plays the role of the husband, Ernest Hale, Robert McKim plays Lewis Bressler, a stage manager, and Mary Allen, the actress who later became Ethel's maid and one of her most faithful friends.

Ethel is out of work and is befriended in a delicate way by a charity worker, Cora Hale. Later Ethel secures a good position and gains fame as an actress. She meets at a banquet given in her honor Ernest Hale, the attorney for the company in which she works. It is a case of mutual infatuation, and even when Ethel is told that Ernest is a married man and cannot marry her without a divorce, she hesitates to give him up. Through the efforts of her maid, the little slavey of former years whom she had befriended, Ethel is brought to a situation that taxes her character and her honor to the utmost. The climax is powerful and is handled with a wonderful delicacy by Miss Barriscale. The last act finds one tragedy averted and another precipitated. "The Last Act" plays at the Hippodrome today and tomorrow.

AUDITORIUM.

"The Garden of Allah."

The Liebler Co.'s production, "The Garden of Allah," which comes to the Auditorium tomorrow, matinee and night, is one of the most gripping and beautiful of the modern dramas. This generation has had an opportunity of seeing. Not only as a production does "The Garden of Allah" scintillate, but there is an absorbing dramatic conflict in it also. It tells the story of a great battle between two minds—two souls. Then there are many oriental figures in the production, including the natives who live in the street of the Ouled Nalles, the camel drivers, who dismount to bow towards Mecca at the rising of the sun, the courtiers, porters and guides, with whom one comes in contact at Biskra, Algiers, at the edge of the desert, and horses, camels, donkeys, goats and other livestock from that far-off country.

Cream of tartar, derived from grapes, is used in Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder because it is the best and most healthful ingredient known for the purpose.

Phosphate and alum, which are derived from mineral sources, are used in some baking powders, instead of cream of tartar, because they are cheaper.

If you have been induced to use baking powders made from alum or phosphate, use Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder instead. You will be pleased with the results and the difference in the quality of the food.

Names of additional committeemen to work today in a sweeping wind-up of the campaign to raise subscriptions to enlarge the scope of the Chamber of Commerce, which were appointed by President Harry M. Baine, were read yesterday noon at a meeting of the regular committee held in the grill room of the Raleigh hotel. With the additional campaign workers President Baine expects to have every professional or business man of the city not members of the organization called upon today by some member of the committee.

At 9 o'clock this morning a meeting of the committee will be held in the grill room at the Raleigh, at which time the territory that will be canvassed will be divided and outlined. CHANGE DATE FOR FORT WORTH TRIP

FAT STOCK SHOW EXCURSION
UNDER AUSPICES OF Y. M. C. A.
B. L. TO BE MARCH 16.

INSPECT ROADS THURSDAY

Good Roads Committee With County Engineer Will Make Trip Over China Springs Road.

Changing the date of the excursion to Fort Worth from March 17 to Thursday, March 16, was probably the most important matter of business which was disposed of last night at the last meeting of the present board of directors of the Young Men's Business League. The present directors' term expires next Tuesday night, when the regular monthly general meeting of the league will be held and the directors to serve for the ensuing year will be elected. Following the business session last night the board was the guest of Robert L. Dupper, member of the board, at a banquet given at the Chrys cafe.

W. V. Crawford, chairman of the committee in charge of the excursion to the Fort Worth Annual Fat Stock Show, reported that the round trip fare would be $2.25. He said it was the request of the committee to have ten teams of three men each to be appointed and to meet Monday noon for the purpose of planning the excursion. That the league should strive to have at least 300 persons on the excursion was declared by Mr. Crawford. He said that a special train would make the trip, leaving here probably at 1:45 p. m., and making the trip to Fort Worth in about two hours and a half. The train will return about 7:30 o'clock on the same night.

May Get Timmer's Convention. W. C. Torbett was a guest at the meeting and stated that Waco stood an excellent chance of securing the annual convention of the sheet metal contractors, which would probably bring one hundred men to the city. The convention will last two days. The proposition was referred to the convention committee.

B. C. Nettles, president of the local Boy Scouts, introduced W. Butler of New York City, field worker of the Boy Scout organization. Mr. Butler said he had made the visit to Waco for the purpose of promoting plans to bring about the enlargement of the Waco Boy Scout organization, having been so requested by the local organization. He said that this was his first visit to Texas on such a mission and that Dallas was the only city he was to visit after leaving Waco. This means that Waco is among four southern cities to be honored by the national organization sending a representative to help enlarge the council.

A compliment was paid the Waco Scouts by Mr. Butler, who emphasized the fact that they stood a good chance of increasing the present membership of 2000. T. E. Hubby, who has been prominent in promoting the Boy Scout organization, also was present and made a short talk, which was well received. It was this organization that started the movement to organize the Boy Scouts in this city.

B. C. Nettles stated that the Boy Scouts would appreciate it if the president of the city, Mr. R. A. Coulter, would commit to keep in touch with the Boy Scouts council and act as an advisory body in a campaign that was to be inaugurated at an early date. The campaign will be to educate the public to the needs of a Boy Scouts organization, to increase the membership of the Boy Scouts council and to raise funds to handle the proposition for the next two or three years, which will include the salary of a Scout leader who would devote his entire time to the Boy Scouts.

Road Inspection Trip Thursday. J. C. Killgore reported that with the other members of the good roads committee and Council Engineer Windy, a trip would be made over the road to China Springs Thursday to inspect the road and see what will take to repair and place it in first class condition. Recently a delegation of citizens from Bosque county received the pledge of the Waco Young Men's Business League and the McLennan County commissioners to co-operate in an effort to have the road graded and graded.

William L. Dillmore reported that in regard to inviting the state democratic convention to meet in Waco, the report was unanimously adopted and another committee will be appointed to further investigate what steps Waco will take to secure the convention.

Waco manufacturers had not manifested enough interest in the proposed home industry show. The Young Men's Business League to further emphasize the possibility of having it and recommended the league proposition. The proposition was to have a home industry show at the annual Fat Stock show at Fort Worth.

J. J. Hutchison announced that the grandstand at the Katy baseball park was nearing completion and would be ready for occupancy the opening day, which will be promoted by the Young Men's Business League. On this day all gate receipts will go toward defraying the expenses of erecting the stand.

J. W. Carlin, chairman of the committee that promoted the spring style show last week, reported that the amount subscribed. His final report will be made before the general meeting next Tuesday night.

That the dam on the Brazos river would be completed probably the latter part of next month was included in a report made by Perry Duncan and that plans had been started to celebrate the completion of the dam a little later on. It was announced that a grand convention would be held at Taylor, March 17. The league will probably take some steps to be represented at this convention.

Henry Will Open Campaign for Senate April 4 at Moody

Congressman R. L. Henry will open his campaign for the United States senate April 4 at Moody, according to the announcement made at his office here yesterday. The date was chosen for sentimental reasons, it being exactly twenty years from the date of opening of Mr. Henry's first campaign for congress. A number of Mr. Henry's friends who heard his first speech twenty years ago will probably go over to hear him April 4.

Baylor and Boy Scout Bands Are Friendly to Labor

Charles W. Parker, who is in charge of both the Baylor band and Boy Scout band of this city, and who serves each of such bands as director, makes the announcement that it is not his desire as such director, nor of any member of these organizations, to in any way do harm against any organized band of the city. It will be remembered that both of the musical bodies that Mr. Parker serves in the capacity mentioned are organized mainly for the purpose of instructions to the members individually, and as a part of the institutions with which they are identified.

It has always been the desire of Mr. Parker, he says, to make himself and the members of his different bands of benefit to Waco, when such services were called for or were not in competition with other bands affiliated with organized labor. Mr. Parker believes in union labor and thus believing, he would not make himself an agency to the hurt or permit any body of men with whom he was associated to do so—Adv.

FINAL MEETING OF BABY WEEK TODAY

DOCTORS INSTRUCT MOTHERS

Care of Infants in First Few Months of Life Explained by Specialists at Community Meeting.

The program yesterday in connection with National Baby Week was given at the Edgewood Methodist church and consisted of educational talks by experts on the proper care of babies. Dr. S. C. Gage gave an interesting address on the care of the child from its birth until several years of age, telling of many things often neglected by the parents, mostly due to ignorance.

Dr. H. T. Aynsworth, eye, ear, nose and throat specialist, gave a talk dealing mostly with the care of the ear and throat, and a talk was made on the care of the teeth by Dr. J. F. Smart, dentist. Mrs. Ed Smith gave a talk similar to the one given Monday afternoon at the Bell's Hill school when she demonstrated articles necessary in the proper care of bottle-fed babies. A paper which told of the importance of the National Baby Week was read by Mrs. J. C. Houser. The charts were displayed which were illustrated with pictures showing the necessary care of milk bottles, etc.

Final Meeting This Afternoon

Today the local Better Baby Week will be brought to a close with a program at the East Waco public school starting at 3 p. m. Talks will be made by Dr. W. L. Crosthwait, Dr. J. O. Hall and Dr. C. P. Sheneck. Papers reading "Don'ts" were distributed at the meeting yesterday, a copy of which is given below:

- Don't—Feed the baby too often or too much.
- Don't—Let him be longer than twenty minutes at the breast or bottle at one feeding.
- Don't—Let him have an empty bottle to suck.
- Don't—Give him a Pacifier, Mother's Comfort, or any other so-called device to keep him quiet; he will not need them if properly cared for and fed.
- Don't—Let him suck his thumb. It spoils the shape of the mouth.
- Don't—Let him go for days or even a day without a drink of water; give a teaspoonful occasionally.
- Don't—Let him sit on the floor on cold days, especially if there is no carpet, unless there is a blanket or pad under him.
- Don't—Let him sit in front of an open window, with a direct breeze blowing on him, or allow him to sit in a draft between open window or door.
- Don't—Let him play with matches, pins, scissors or sharp-pointed objects.
- Don't—Urge him to stand on his feet too young, for if you do he will become bow-legged.
- Don't—Give solid food before one year old, and then only sparingly.
- Don't—Give him candy, chocolate and sweet things.
- Don't—Let him lie in a wet diaper.
- Don't—Let hands and feet get cold.
- Don't—Let the nose get clogged up.
- Don't—Give him tea and coffee, beer, whiskey, gin or any drink containing alcohol.
- Don't—Give him medicine or drugs without the doctor's advice.
- Don't—Let him stay up all hours of the night; undress and put him to bed promptly at six every night.
- Don't—Pick him up every time he cries.
- Don't—Walk the floor with him.
- Don't—Let any one kiss baby on the mouth; much disease is carried in this way.
- Don't—Take him out in wet weather, or on very windy days, or when there is melting snow on the ground.
- Don't—Handle him too much; it is bad for him.
- Don't—Pin band or diaper too tight about the body, as it may cause deformity and often is the cause of vomiting.

NOTED LECTURER ON DRESS TODAY AT CARROLL CHAPEL

Mrs. Ruth Carson, well known lecturer on sociology and domestic science, will speak this afternoon at 4:30 in Carroll chapel on "Beauty and Simplicity in Dress." Mrs. Carson was one of the speakers at the State university during the Home Economics Week and has lectured in Dallas, Fort Worth and other points.

Noted Teacher to Talk on Shakespeare During Celebration

Dr. John Matthews Manley, head of the department of English at the University of Chicago, has consented to speak here on April 22 in the afternoon at the Tercentenary Shakespearean celebration. He will fill the same appointment that was to have been filled by Dr. Shelling, but who, due to the celebration in Philadelphia, was forced to stay there.

Dr. Shelling was coming south to make some addresses, but was forced to cancel his engagements. Then Dr. Armstrong, head of the department of English at Baylor, secured Dr. Manley and since he is very widely known both as an author and instructor, Baylor considers herself unusually fortunate in having him on that occasion.

NOTED WOMAN TO SPEAK AT TEMPLE THURSDAY NEXT

Mrs. Ernestine Dreifus, the national secretary of the Council of Jewish Women, will arrive in Waco tomorrow morning for the purpose of addressing the local council.

The following was said yesterday of her coming:

"Mrs. Dreifus is one of the notable personalities among American noted women, and to meet her and to listen to her address is a liberal education in itself. Every Jewish lady of the Waco community, whether member or not member of this great national organization, will no doubt avail herself of the rare opportunity to hear a lecture that promises to be instructive and entertaining in the extreme."

In these days of a world crisis we need to gather our forces with such zeal and such determination that the voice of Israel will be heard to advantage when the period of reconstruction begins. It is the confident hope of the local council and of the Waco community that a record audience will welcome the distinguished guest. Mrs. Dreifus comes with an important message, and in behalf of our common cause, and as a matter of local pride, let every one consider it a personal duty to be present."

The meeting will take place at 10:30 in the morning.
